  - Remember if you have any concerns for ARA you can email them.
- VIII. Committee Reports
  - Dining Services
    - The Panini that is in Graham Street will be featured in an upcoming article.
    - There are no set in stone dates for the opening of Drumlin. They will open it up in a staggered process. The first week they will be opening it up to the six pack side before the rest of the campus.
    - At some point they will be visiting other universities to see how their dining halls are set up and run.
- IX. Approval of the budget: Wade Heckendorf moves to approve the budget. Seconded by Dylan Rowder. With a vote of 35-0-6, the motion has been approved.
- X. Old business
  - Welcome back weekend
    - Asking RHA to co sponsor the opening weekend event. There will be events planned at the beginning of Fall 2014 to encourage students to stay on campus the first weekend.
      - Motion: Wade Heckendorf moves to pledge $5,000.00 to the welcome back program. Seconded by Mike Mifflin. With a vote of 40-0-0, the motion has been approved.
  - DECA (Brian Turner)
    - Asking RHA for $3,025.60. They are asking us to sponsor them for the State conference.
      - Motion: Adam Grassnickle moves to give $1,000 to DECA with the stipulation that it only goes to the residence hall students. Seconded by Tim Drays. With a vote of 35-0-6, the motion has been approved.
  - Legislation
    - Honorarium process was combined 6-8 years ago; we would like to change the legislation so that they are split into two different processes; our pay process and our evaluation process.
      - Motion: Avery Brister calls to question. Seconded by Wade Heckendorf. With a vote of 31-0-10, the motion has been approved.
- XI. New business
  - Tutt/Knilians/Fischer penny wars
