Non-Traditional Student Week (no representative present so Anna will present on their behalf):

Proposal:

During the week of November 7th - 11th, we will be celebrating National Nontraditional Student Week on campus. It is recognized nationally every year. At UW-W, nontraditional students include parents, those who have delayed entrance to college, veterans, and those individuals 25+ and older. This week is a series of events meant to inform the University community about the challenges nontraditional students face balancing home, school, and work, and celebrating the accomplishments of these students at the same time. As part of our celebration, would it be possible to put a 8 ½ x 11" clear acrylic display framed flyer celebrating nontraditional students with a container of free giveaways (possibly candy or pens) at the front desks of each dorm? The flyer will depict some facts about returning adult students and highlight the contributions they bring to the classroom. The goal of this effort is to raise awareness and understanding of the mixed age classroom. Thank you for your consideration. Lynn Smith

IX. Executive Reports (7:32 PM)

President: Hello RHA! This week I have been working on finalizing the Culvers Fundraiser, planning for our SUFAC presentation, and finalizing the ideas for how LIT Funding will work moving forward. Have a great week!

Vice President: Last Friday I submitted the SUFAC application. I am now working on getting the SUFAC details and the presentation started for our hearing in a couple weeks (November 4th, 7 PM). Care packages should be arriving sometime next week. I will need some help sorting and distributing them, so if anyone wants to help let me know after the meeting. Tomorrow in Goodhue.

Executive Assistant: Hello everyone! As usual, please let me know if you need a name card or if there is a spelling error. If you didn't swipe in please come and see me at the end of the meeting. I have been working on information books for LIT's to be a reference for LIT's as well as the RHA representatives which will be uploaded to our website and connectUww page. I would love to see more snaps because you are all doing some great work so please recognize each other.

NCC: This week I've been getting ready for GLACURH and our delegation's first meeting on Friday. I've also been working on getting the pop tab wars program finalized so that it can start on the 23rd of October. The winning LIT will get $100 for their LIT to spend on for a program.
Erin: What are the dates? A: October 23 - November 6

Co-Programmers:

Becca: This week I have been working on decorations and getting volunteers for "Horror in the Halls" on November 1st 7-10 PM. I have also been helping Gray with a craft idea for Trick or Treat in the halls.

Marisa: I have been working on Horror in the Halls and the LIT reimbursement request example. (The presentation will be attached along with the minutes).

Marketing Coordinator: This week, I have been putting a lot of time into designing the poster for the Pop Tab Wars. I have also been working on updating our website with our meeting's minutes from previous meetings. Results from last weeks voting jar: 24:12 Caramel Candy Pops v Candy Corn

X. Advisor Reports (7:40 PM)

Janet: Remember to attend Boxes & Walls next week.

Jack: Please participate in Boxes & Walls by attending. If you could volunteer please contact me or other CD/ACD's.

Residents of Wells that want to hand out candy should respond to the email I have already sent out.

XI. NRHH Report (7:43 PM)

Tim: Hello friends! We went over our pillar points and adjusted numbers. Around the first week of November NRHH will be having an OTM program for LITs. There will be an incentive for the LIT that writes the most quality OTMs.

XII. WSG Report (PM)

XIII. Jitters Report (7:45 PM)

Erin: What is going on in Jitters? We do not have much coming up due to Boxes and Walls. Stay updated. We did get new blenders but we need to have volunteers so that we can use them!

Will be sending out an email out later to get your LIT representatives for Jitters. It is important that each LIT has a Jitters Rep and that they are communicating with Jitters (jitters@uww.edu or at weekly meetings) in order to schedule dates that your LIT is volunteering.

The 30th is our Jitters House party. Please come join us!

General Meeting: Sundays at 8 PM in Jitters

XIV. External Committees (7:47 PM)

Dining Committee: We did not have a dining meeting this week. This year the contract is going to expire. If you want all access in Esker and Drumlin: as much as you want as often as you want or more flexible meal plan: meals at other locations (library or Hyland). Please bring this back to your LIT's so that we can bring these opinions

XV. Internal Committees (PM)

XVI. Issues/Food Comments (7:48 PM)

Sean: Domestic violence/sexual assault: Self-defense for the entire campus. It is a big topic right now and important to talk about. Please discuss with LIT's on how we can make a difference on campus.
