VII. Guest Speakers (7:20 PM)

WSG President: Kane Poad

Campus Reporting: file reports properly, how students go by reporting academics and non-academics, how would it look, who do they talk to? If you were to go to the Whitewater homepage, where would you go to find a report. Ex. Go to the search bar and type in report. What is the best way to let people know how they can report. Administratively. Does anyone have any suggestions?

Shauna: Advertisements, digital signage, host an event.

John: D2L because I am on it all the time.

Bill: In the drop down bar, or something else easy.

Keeley: Can there be a link right on the Whitewater homepage, right on top in order to see it =.

Braze: I agree with Keeley

Jager: In D2L, in the news post area on D2L.

Paige: Going off what Keeley said, have it on the top link with the faculty and such.

Shauna: Whitewater homepage is more stable than D2L because that is down every now and then.

Tim: Mail in residence halls.

Keeley: Is this going to be a separate website? A: Yes, it is currently being worked on. Academic and nonacademic, sexual assault, professor issue, harassment. It is still in it's beginning stage.
