

RHA December Newsletter

Dining Services:

Customer

Appreciation Day

At our meeting on November 7, 2018, the Director of Dining, Executive Chef, and Director of Retail Operations came in to listen to students input on dining. December 6 is Customer Appreciation Day at the dining halls. Treats will be given out at lunch and dinner will be a meal you will not want to miss.

Pancake Breakfast

The Pancake Breakfast will be December 12 at 10:30pm and is FREE to students so take a break from your studies and grab some late night breakfast at Esker.

GLACURH 2018

RHA represented UW-Whitewater at the Great Lakes Affiliate of College and University Residence Halls Student Leadership Conference November 16-18 at Oakland University in Michigan. This conference is for students to grow as leaders, learn about the resources available to them, network with other students, and have a lot of fun in the process. If you are interested in attending future conferences, please email Ethan at ncc@uww.edu.

Open Mic Night

On December 6, RHA will be hosting an Open Mic Night at 7pm in UC 275. There will be hot chocolate and many treats. We look forward to seeing you there! If you have any questions, please email rhaprograms@uww.edu.

Jitters

Jitters is a coffeehouse located in Wells that serves coffee and specialty drinks including slushies and ice cream shakes. It is run entirely by volunteers. Jitters is always looking for volunteers. If you are interested in volunteering, please email jitters@uww.edu.

Shoe Drive

Phi Delta Theta was approved by RHA to place shoe donation boxes in the residence halls. If you have any new or used shoes that are still in good or moderate condition, donate them in the shoe donation box located by your residence hall's front desk.

Mixed Race

Student Union

Mixed Race Student Union was given $750 by RHA to help them towards their goal of attending the NCORE conference in May regarding race and diversity issues on campus.
