5. Executive Reports (7:21)

a. Lisa

- i. This week I took care of the regular tasks like emails, attending a WSG meeting, creating the meeting agenda, and working on my transition report.
- ii. In addition to that I also went to Wells' All Hall and their mask decorating program.
- iii. I helped process the care packages right away when they came in because they contained fresh fruit.
- iv. Lastly, I worked on the LIT appreciation video for the end of the year meeting.

b. Ben

- i. I had my One on One with Maria to discuss Spring opportunities and post-Thanksgiving programs. So then I started to plan the second semester events.
- ii. I delivered all the care packages.
- iii. I updated the budget.
- iv. Last week, I went to the Tutt/Fischer Jitters Takeover.
- v. Lastly, I worked on my transition report. Dec 9, host a jackbox games lobby, and if anyone has a party pack, please email me in the chat. Are there any questions for me?

c. Amanda

- i. Hello all, this past week I have been working on the Minutes as usual as well as helped Ashley from the sustainability office deliver the Recycling Bins to Ma'iingan, Wells, Starin, and Arey/Fricker.
- ii. The monthly RHA Newsletter went out last week, and you have any questions or feedback, please feel free to email me at rhaassist@uww.edu.
- iii. I have been working on my transition report, as well as ideas for philanthropy projects and recognition ideas for next semester. If you have any questions, please ask me or send me an email. Thanks everyone.

d. Mya

- i. Hello all, this past week was a relatively chill week for me. As you all know, I hosted the Warhawks of Whitewater event on Tuesday evening and had an amazing turnout of 21 people. I was able to email all of the pictures out to everyone on Thursday.

- ii. I also met with Tom, the ACD of Starin, to discuss attending a Starin LIT meeting for our Big Sib program.
- iii. We have started discussing ideas for spring programs, so stay tuned for that because it is all pretty exciting stuff. Thank you.

e. Genna

- i. Hello RHA. After we chatted last week, I finished the Whitewater's Got Talent Video and held the event. Thank you to everyone who participated. It was a great evening. The winners have been notified and they are picking up prizes this week.
 - 1. The prizes were wireless headphones, a "comfy" basket, and a UWW Waterbottle.
- ii. I also attended Wellers/Knilians All-Hall and met with my lovely board members.

f. Abby

- i. Hi everyone! My name is Abby Daniels, and I am the Publicity and Recognition Director. This week I worked on creating more content for social media and brainstormed ways that RHA plans on staying engaged with everyone after we go virtual.
- ii. Last Saturday, I also attended Whitewater's Got Talent, and created a post for that. If you know me, you know I get really excited about the little things so I just wanted to share that our Whitewater's Got Talent winners post got the most likes in the history of the RHA Instagram, so thank you to all who liked it. And just a big thanks to everyone else who has been active on our social media this semester. I appreciate you all so much.
- iii. Another announcement I have is that even though we are going virtual, you can still write OTM's. If you have someone great in your life that's really stood out to you during this month or if you have attended any awesome LIT programs, RA programs or RHA programs in November, you should write an OTM for them. The deadline for November OTMs is December 5. That is almost two and a half weeks away so make sure you get started with those.
- iv. RHA is also holding a giveaway on social media tonight. To be entered to win the $10 SweetSpot gift card, you need to go comment your favorite emoji on our meeting reminder post and be attending tonight's meeting. The link for the post is in the chat.
