What Drew Me to The Position

PRESIDENT

I was already in a leadership position and I was looking for the next step

I loved how the eboard worked and felt like a work family

RHA In General

As a transfer student I was looking for a sense of belonging and a community.

RHA happened to fill that for me and I wanted to give back to the organization that could be here for me. And be able to help provide that for other students

Favorite Parts Of The Position

- Finding out about and meeting the other student leaders on campus
- Learning of the resources and opportunities that I may have not known about , and being able to spread the word through RHA
- Facilitating when RHAs GA(you) has a fruitful discussion about import topics,

Favorite Part of Eboard

- Having such a wonderful group of student leader to be able to work alongside
- They are a great support, and are people who I know I can rely on
- Advisors who care about us

Typical Office Hours

- Emails
- Agenda
- Meetings
- Executive report
- Project for that week
