- Becca M. (7:25 PM)
 - This week was programs that did not make the cut week. I tried to see how to make the bags for cornhole and went shopping with Matt, Abby and Amanda and while shopping we had our 3:1 meeting. I also attended a Starin lit event where we made welcome mats.
- Abby D. (7:26 PM)
 - Hi everyone! This week, I did my usual tasks of updating the website, posting on social media, and sending out emails. I worked on planning and marketing for Programs That Didn't Make the Cut Week, and I'm also attending each of those programs this week. I also wrote nominations for the Recognition of Excellence and I wrote an OTM. For March we had 8 OTMs submitted, so thank you so much to everyone who wrote one! Tomorrow, I'll be meeting with the OTMs committee to select the campus winners and regional nominations.

- Andrea B. (7:27 PM)
 - This past week I put finishing touches on the Scavenger Hunt. I made advertisements, finalized questions, created game rules and disclaimers, and created a Google Form to sign up. I also had a two on one with Maria and Ben.

* Advisor Reports

- Cole C.
 - No report
- Matt D. (7:29 PM)
 - I focused on Reception of Excellence this past week. Last year we had 48 nominations, and this year we had 59 nominations for individual awards which is fantastic. A lot of RHA takes a large part in this, and if you haven't seen the websites for nominations its Reception of Excellence you can go to the website below
 - <http://uwwrha.org/2021-reception-of-excellence/>
 - The programmers have been working super hard on programs that didn't make the cut week, we will still have programs running this Wednesday through Saturday.
 - Thank you all for giving us your time and energy this Wednesday night, keep holding on until spring Break
 - Lisa S.: Can you watch the Reception of Excellence after it has happened?
 - Matt D: Yes, it will be posted on the RHA website most likely
 - Matt B.: You mentioned a Q and A for executive board candidates, what's the format for that?

- Maria G: We will be going by position, and anyone who is interested in asking questions will have the opportunity to
 - Maria G. (7:27 PM)
 - Happy April Everyone! This week I worked on recruiting for the new RHA executive Board. I sent around 20 – 30 personalized letters to all of the candidates. We have had a handful of people apply through the Google Form as well. The deadline to apply is this Friday at midnight, however I won't check my email until Monday morning. If you have any questions or want an application, you can email me.
 - GloriosoMF19@uww.edu
 - On Wednesday the general assembly will be able to ask the candidates as to why they would be a good fit for the executive board
